

Task 1: Pie Chart

Subject: The pie charts below show the most common advantages and disadvantages of Bowen Island, according to a survey of visitors.

Most common disadvantages

Most common advantages

Model Answer #1

Response:

The pie charts illustrate the predominant advantages and disadvantages of Bowen Island as reported by visitors in a recent survey.

Both charts delineate four key categories, with visitors highlighting weather as the principal disadvantage and good accommodation as the foremost advantage.

In terms of advantages, the chart reveals that 'good accommodation' is the most notable positive attribute, garnering 42% of visitor approval. This is closely followed by appreciation for the island's 'culture,' which received 35% of the votes. Meanwhile, 'scenery' and 'the people' accounted for smaller proportions, with 12% and 11% respectively, indicating that while these aspects are valued, they are not as prominent in visitors' experiences.

Conversely, the disadvantages pie chart indicates that 'weather' is perceived as the most significant drawback, impacting 50% of respondents. This is a stark contrast to the 'high cost of living,' which is a concern for 25% of visitors. Additionally, 'entertainment' and 'food quality' present lesser issues, attracting 15% and 10% of complaints respectively. Such insights reflect the varied experiences of visitors to Bowen Island, distinguishing key areas for potential enhancement.

Model Answer #2

Response:

The provided pie charts delineate the predominant advantages and disadvantages of Bowen Island as reported by visitors in a survey.

Analysis of the data reveals a stark contrast between the most frequently cited advantages and disadvantages of Bowen Island, with weather being the most significant drawback and accommodation being the most noted benefit.

The upper pie chart, which illustrates the most common disadvantages, indicates that an overwhelming 50% of respondents identified adverse weather conditions as the primary concern. This was followed by the high cost of living, which constituted 25% of the responses. In the realm of entertainment and food quality, the proportions were markedly lower, standing at 15% and 10% respectively, highlighting that these factors are considerably less significant issues for visitors.

Conversely, the lower pie chart depicting the most common advantages reveals that 42% of visitors appreciated the quality of accommodation available on the island. Cultural experiences were also highly regarded, with 35% of respondents acknowledging this aspect. In contrast, the scenic beauty of Bowen Island attracted only 12% of the acclaim, while the friendliness of the people garnered 11% of the votes. Such ratings suggest that while there are notable advantages to visiting Bowen Island, they are overshadowed by the considerable disadvantage presented by the local climate.
